

The Conservators' Heathland Prime Hebridean Mutton Box

A delicious taste of Ashdown Forest.

The Hebridean is a breed of sheep with an historical reputation for producing delicious mutton. The Hebrideans from the Conservators' flock are particularly slow growing, fed on the natural heathland vegetation of the Forest and definitely in a class of their own. From mature 3-4 year old Wethers. Exceptional for slow cooking.

Your box of Mutton will be processed locally, expertly cut and packed;

A whole box will consist of about 16-18 kg of Mutton, comprising:

- 2 legs – very good as slow roast.
- Cubed shoulder meat for your stews, curries, tagines etc. packed as 450g
- Hot pot cuts on the bone - loin chops (12), cutlets (14) and chump (rump) steaks (6)
- Mince for your shepherds pies

You can also order a half box which will be between 8-9kg

Enjoy this natural and tasty product in the knowledge that you are helping to conserve the rare and beautiful heathlands of Ashdown Forest.

We charge £8.00/kg and you will need to collect from the Ashdown Forest Centre, Wych Cross, RH18 5JP
